PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Families,

Welcome to all Galilee community members , both old and new, particularly our 2017 Preps and their families. We also welcome new staff: Amy Burns, Helen Rochcouste and Carmen Carnovale who has returned after a year of leave.

It will be an exciting term with many incursions, excursions, camps and events already in the calendar.

It was wonderful to see our Preps make a wonderful start showing independence and confidence.

We welcomed parents today for morning tea with at least 100 families attending and I thank Jess Conway for her coordination.

Each Monday, families will be invited into their child's classroom up until 8:55am.

Please note that this is not a time to ask confidential questions of the teachers. Staff will be supervising entry into the school and only school families will be allowed to enter.

Simon Millar-Principal at Galilee
